

The (not so) secret guide to falls management. Clinical Program

Description:	This study day provides staff with knowledge and skills to assess patients with Falls risk minimise the risk of falls injury and manage actual fall events. Sessions are fun and interactive; actual falls events are discussed and investigated. Sessions are delivered by multidisciplinary Falls subject matter experts and are based on the Australian Safety and Quality Council Best Practice Guidelines for Preventing Falls and Harm from Falls.
Learning objectives:	At the conclusion of this study day, the learner will be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have an enhanced understanding of the financial and social impact of falls • Develop an awareness of strategies used to minimise the risk of falls in hospital • Have increased knowledge of assessments that can be utilized in practice • Be more familiar with incident reporting, documentation procedures and responsibilities
What participants say:	'I would highly recommend this course. Thanks for sharing your passion for falls prevention' 'Definitely one of the best study days I have been to' 'Well presented, I learnt a lot' 'All aspects of the day were highly relevant' informative and easy to understand
Who should attend?	All health care professionals working in a healthcare service.
Program drivers:	Training Needs Analysis, Supportive of National Safety & Quality Health Service Standard 5
Program preparation:	Completion of learning activities via online learning (Moodle).
Facilitator:	Su Kitchen CNC Falls Management SCGH
Program details:	Time: 0745 – 1600 Date: Wednesday 8 th May and 30 th October 2019 Venue: Q block, CNE, SCGH Cost: SCGOPHCG applicants- free of charge NMAHS applicants- $55.00 External applicants- $110.00 inc.GST.
#Keywords:	Falls, falls minimization, falls strategies, falls assessment, FRAMP, vision impairment, podiatry, falls physiology, syncope, vertigo, delirium, cognition changes, cognition assessment, mobility, injury reduction
Program previously titled:	'Falling into falls management'.

Click here for a registration form.

