

Tracheostomy Care & Management Basics

Clinical Program

Description	This clinical program exposes participants to contemporary evidence based practice requirements needing consideration when caring for patients with tracheostomies. Program participants will develop their knowledge and skills in tracheostomy care and management through participation in interactive workshop and case study sessions delivered by clinical experts.
Learning Objectives	At the conclusion of this study day, the learner will be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the basics of tracheostomy care and emergency management strategies utilising evidence based resources • Demonstrate practical skills needed in the care and management of tracheostomies • Identify clinical experts involved in the care of patients with tracheostomies
What participants say	Program new in 2019
Who should attend?	All nurses and health care professionals working in a healthcare service
Program drivers	Clinical training needs analysis by subject matter experts
Program preparation	Completion of learning activities via online learning (Moodle).
Facilitators	Leanne Simpson Clinical Nurse Specialist G64 SCGH Surgical Division Carmelle Carrick Staff Development Nurse G64 SCGH Surgical Division Holly Powell Staff Development Nurse G64 SCGH Surgical Division
Program Details	Time: 0745-1600 Date: Tuesday 16 th April or Wednesday 10 th July Venue: Q block CNE Cost: SCGOPHCG applicants: Free of charge. NMAHS applicants: $30. External applicants: $110 including GST
#Keywords	Suctioning; Inner cannula; Tracheostomy; Dressings; Nebuliser; Humidification; Emergency management; Practical skills; Tracheostomy emergency algorithm

Click here for a registration form.

